	Ino-studio values
#1 Create a New Business Model by Providing Incubation	For those looking for an enhanced business model, Ino-Studio can help facilitate your research and training opportunities. Create new business opportunities with group planning and mediation skills provided by associate members. Our business experience can expand and enhance your thinking.
#2 Connect the World with Kyoto	Kyoto businesses have many alliances and cultural exchanges in countries throughout the world. However, many of the events and projects are operated independently and have less coordination with other businesses in the alliances and exchanges. Ino-Studio will act as a hub to connect your business to other parts of the world. Our unique set of skills and experience provide you with fast path access to the Kyoto academics, political and industry fields.
#3 For those businesses wanting to connect with Kyoto Opportunities	According to an article published March, 2012 in 'President', Kyoto is ranked #1 as 'the most difficult market to reach'. Many business entrepreneurs, especially Tokyo ventures, have commented that the high frequency of business travel to reach the right decision makers is an ever increasing expense. Ino-Studio will serve as a 'branch office' for those ventures where our experts can act as your marketing arm or streamline your existing staff efforts in reaching the right decision maker.
#4 Activate and Utilize Proven Professionals	Major associate members of INO-Studio are ex-officers or ex-professionals of major companies, and have special skills and unique experience as well as excellent relations with key Kyoto markets, which cannot be obtained quickly for beginners. This translates to the generation of significant new business opportunities.
#5 Support to those starting venture businesses	Ino-Studio will provide the right person and procedure to assist you in starting your business much faster and with fewer costly mistakes. Our experience and contacts in the Kyoto academic, political and industry sectors can greatly assist in achieving your business goals. We provide office facilities at minimum cost and in the most convenient location in Kyoto city.
